

Empower a Youth in India to Realize Their University Ambitions & Change the Course of Their Life!

K. Swetha

Bachelor of Business Administration

Swetha is currently in 12th grade. She is very ambitious and has big dreams for her future career ambitions. She lives in a household that values education, as evidenced by her two younger siblings' commitment to their own studies. Unfortunately, Swetha's parents are able to contribute but are not able to fully fund her courses. Visions' help is greatly needed to make Swetha's dreams of majoring in Business Administration come true.

Swetha has been a student at one of Visions' Leadership Centers for years. After school, she would typically spend three to four hours daily at the Center doing homework, studying for her exams, engaging with her peers, and learning to become a strong leader. The Center gave her a safe and engaging place to be after school. She credits Visions for teaching her to be assertive and for helping her come up with a plan for her future. She knows she can succeed and become the first graduate in her family with Visions' help.
